Masons Free Christmas Day Dinner

UAW Local 74 will be partnering up with the Masons again this year to provide a free Christmas dinner to those in need in our community. Anyone looking to volunteer Christmas Day to help pull off this special event can contact Chris at the hall. 641-682-0897

Volunteers will also be needed on Dec 21st at 8am at the Masson's Lodge at 921 Church St. Ottumwa. Nora Bellon is the contact.

The Veterans Committee will again be collecting Calendars for Veterans. If you would like to donate a calendar please see Steve Helm (first shift Pack out), Scott Hobbs (third shift pack out) or drop off at the Hall. Thank you in advance.

The Women's Committee is collecting school bags and supplies to give to our schools for the 2020-2021 school year. Donations can be dropped off at the hall. Thank you

Reminder: Any member can go to the hall and use the fax machine and the printer at any time. Also, Our Union Hall is available to rent to all members. First come first serve basis. $50 down for use of the Union Hall and $50 down for the use of the kitchen. Both are refundable. Smoking and alcohol are NOT permitted

HOLIDAY
Nights'N Lights

The Community Service Committee is still looking for volunteers to help with hosting the Ottumwa Nights-N-Lights the dates of: 12-8, 12-26 and 12-27 of 2019
There is a sign up sheet at the Union Hall if interested.

Local 74 will be teaming up with Silver Bell's, American Home Finding Association and Hope House to provide gifts for those families who struggle this Christmas season.

There are tags on the Christmas Tree at the Hall that have ages and needs/wants for these individuals.

If you are to pick a tag, please leave the tag number and your name. Do not wrap the gifts but do leave the tag when you drop them off. The gifts must be turned in by Dec. 18th.
